BISHOP H. M. JACKSON.

The Eufaula, Ala., Times prints the following in justification of Bishop H. M. Jackson, concerning whom there have been various publications:

Bishop Jackson has been confined closely to his own home since the recent unfortunate publications concerning him. His father has been at death's door for several weeks and only a few weeks ago was laid away in a silent home to await the resurrection day to take place, finally, among those who do not slander their neighbors or bear malice in their hearts.

fair to become quite popular. It is on the summit of the Blue Ridge, some eight miles from Luray, and gives one of the most extended and general views of the country on both sides of the ridge.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman."

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who knew me to be a poor widow, gave it to me. I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years.
